

TRAIN. LEARN. LEAD. AT USC

BOYS | USC BASEBALL | GRADES 5-8

GIRLS | USC SOCCER | GRADES 5-8

WHAT IS YOUTH IMPACT PROGRAM?

A two-week leadership development experience in partnership with USC Athletics and the Youth Impact Program. Students train with elite college programs while building discipline, teamwork, and confidence through a structured environment influenced by the values of the U.S. Space Force.

Includes: Meals. Gear. Supplies. Mentorship.

APPLY ONLINE

YOUTHIMPACTPROGRAM.ORG

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA | JUNE 29 – JULY 10, 2026

Where Discipline Meets Opportunity.

Youth Impact Program (YIP) serves middle school students in underserved communities.

Through immersive programs on university campuses, students build confidence, discipline, and real-world skills.

- 4,400+ youth impacted
- 15 university campuses
- 800+ student-athlete mentors
- 16 inner-cities served

Youth Impact Program continues to expand opportunities for both boys and girls, helping shape the next generation of leaders through inclusive, high-impact programming.

Serving youth in 16 inner cities including:
Los Angeles • Chicago • Houston • Tampa Bay
• Washington, D.C. and more

449 U.S. MILITARY MENTORS INSTILLING LEADERSHIP AND CHARACTER

178 PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS ENGAGED

13 YIP STUDENT-ATHLETES DRAFTED INTO THE NFL

Bring YIP to Your City! Learn more at:
www.YouthImpactProgram.org

WHAT MAKES YIP DIFFERENT?

Military Discipline

Building structure, accountability, and leadership skills that last a lifetime

University Exposure

Students experience college campuses firsthand—expanding what they believe is possible

Hands-On STEM Learning

Applied learning that builds confidence, problem-solving, and real-world skills

